

BASCS's Official opening and 2nd Annual Science Fair

On Saturday, Feb. the 7th , 2009 BASCS celebrated its official opening and 2nd annual Science Fair together. Bergen County Superintendent Dr. Aaron Graham, City of Garfield Mayor Frank Calandriello and Hackensack City Mayor Michael R. Melfi have honored us with their participation.

Official opening started with ribbon cutting ceremony at 1:30pm followed by award ceremony. BASCS's Noth Jersey Science Olympiad champions and AMC8 Achievement Roll winners awarded by Dr. Graham, Mayor Calandriello and Mayor Melfi.

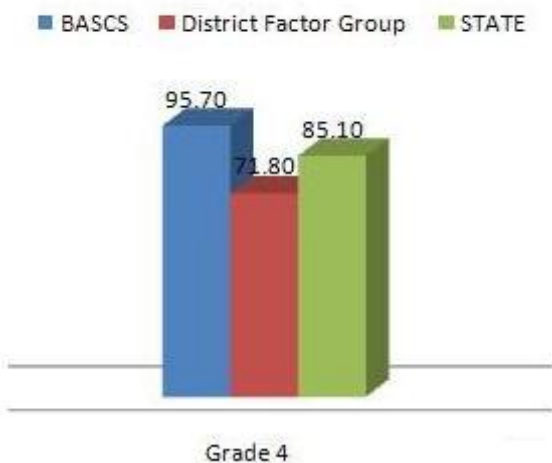

This year's Science Fair Grand Award was given to Rosario Guillermo for his project titled "Artificial light testing on growth". Saturday's organization was simply the culmination of what happens, when individuals come together for the purpose of generating the best in themselves and in others. Many congratulations to all BASCS family.

Science Fair 2009 winners will be awarded with gift cards; 1st place ($100), 2nd place ($75), 3rd place ($50) and Honorable Mention ($25)

BASCS Scored Above State Average on NJ ASK 08 Science and Math

2008 NJ ASK SCIENCE

Dear Parents,

NJ DOE has released 2008 school report cards. We are very pleased with our students' progress and high level of proficiency in Science and Math. Results show that BASCS students performed well above state averages in Science and Math. We will continue to impress upon our students the importance of continually challenging themselves to strive for the next level of achievement. Many congratulations to all BASCS teachers and administrators for their great achievement at BASCS's first year of operation.
